What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of text sent to your web browser by a website you visit. A cookie file is stored in your device and allows us or a third-party to recognise you and make your next visit easier and the service more useful to you: thus, it enables the website to remember your actions and preferences (such as login, language, font size and other display preferences) over a period of time so you don't have to keep re-entering them whenever you come back to the site or browse from one page to another.

Cookies can be "persistent" or "session" cookies. Persistent cookies remain on your personal computer or mobile device when you go offline, while session cookies are deleted as soon as you close your web browser.

How does AIESEC in Brazil use cookies?

When you use and access our services, we may place a number of cookies files in your web browser. We use cookies for the following purposes:

- to enable certain functions of the services;
- to provide analytics;
- to store your preferences;

We use both session and persistent cookies on the website and we use different types of cookies to run it:

- Essential Cookies | We may use essential cookies to authenticate users and prevent fraudulent use of user accounts;

- Preferences Cookies | We may use preferences cookies to remember information that changes the way the services behave or look, such as the "remember me" functionality of a registered user or a user's language preference;

- Analytics Cookies | We may use analytics cookies to track information how the website is used so that we can make improvements. We may also use analytics cookies to test new advertisements, pages, features or new functionality of the website to see how our users react to them;

What are your choices regarding cookies?

You can control and/or delete cookies as you wish: thus, you can delete all cookies that are already on your computer and you can set most browsers to prevent them from being placed. If you delete cookies or refuse to accept them, however, you may have to manually adjust some preferences every time you visit a site and some services and functionalities may not work.
